Coupon Policy

As a customer focused retailer, Reedsburg IGA encourages the use of coupons by our customers in our retail stores, in accordance with the following guidelines and limits.

- We accept manufacturer coupons
- We accept internet coupons
 - Must have expiration date
 - Must have dot matrix near date
 - Must have bar code to scan
 - Company such as Veri-fi or coupons.com
 - Incorporated must be on the coupon
- Limit of one coupon per item and may use a manufacturer coupon and a store coupon on the same item. Customer may not use two manufacturer or two store coupons on the same item.
- We accept coupons for free items up to the maximum value allowed stated on the coupon or the full price of the item if it is less than the maximum value. If the item is taxable the customer must still pay the sales tax.
- We will honor Viking Village coupons except in fresh meat and produce.
- When the coupon value is over the retail of the item, the item is free. No cash or store credit will be issued.
- One coupon per purchase earns one coupon per item, not one per transaction.
- Limit of 40 coupons per transaction.
- If an item is buy one get one free, only one coupon may be used to lower the cost of the item.

Any coupon offer not covered in these guidelines will be accepted at the discretion of Reedsburg IGA management.

Thank You.
